

Arizona Home School Statistics

According to the Maricopa County School Superintendent's office, there are at least 11,556 registered homeschoolers in Maricopa County and approximately 23,000 statewide. Twenty years ago when Desert Hills Christian School was founded, there were only 776 homeschooled children in the whole state of Arizona! The following figures show how the home education movement has grown over the years.

Registered Homeschoolers in Maricopa County

Year	Numbers
1989	750
1990	1,050
1991	1,400
1992	1,700
1993	2,300
1994	3,250
1995	3,400
1996	4,200
1997	4,900
1998	5,700
1999	6,400
2000	7,000
2001	7,500
2002	8,000
2003	8,872
2004	10,350
2005	11,556

All of the other counties put together pretty much equal the number of homeschool registrations in Maricopa County, so double the amount shown would be the approximate number of homeschoolers in the state.

~ Statistics provided courtesy of Debbie Bonilla, Home School Liaison for Maricopa County Superintendent of Schools. ~